“The goal is to give these professionals a chance to show off their skill and commitment to the job. Some amazing things are happening on the jobsite and here’s a chance to be recognized for that work,” said Dave Pizzolato, group brand manager, BOSCH POWER TOOLS. “These hardworking men and women work on projects that need to stand the test of time. And what better way to honor them than to kick off this program on Labor Day weekend?”

Taking part in the “Stand By Your Work” sweepstakes, which runs from Sept. 2, 2016 through Nov. 30, 2016, is easy. All it takes is a picture of the contestant on a jobsite or with a completed project; then submit it to boschtools.com/standbyyourwork. All entries will be posted on a rotating online display that captures all submissions to create one larger photo. One winner will walk away with the grand prize of a $50,000 credit toward their choice of a new RAM truck or van.

“The goal of the sweepstakes is to reward professionals who stand by their work. We made the contest easy to enter – take a photo and submit. That’s it,” said Pizzolato.
